PARTY NAMES
TICKET HEADConvention Was Full of Thrills—Hoover Faction Beaten

Chicago, July 13—(AP)—An insurance man and a farmer-salesman will read the national ticket of the Prohibition party this year.

William F. Varney, Rockville Center, N. Y., was nominated for the presidency on the second ballot at the party convention last night following a persistent attempt by a sizeable minority to nominate or endorse Herbert Hoover.

James A. Edgerton, Alexandria, Va., an Independence League official and a former Populist, who last week headed the Jefferson-Lincoln League move here to unite the Prohibition and Farmer-Labor parties, received the vice-presidential nomination on the first ballot. In his acceptance Edgerton said he had been a Democrat all his life.

Offer Smith and Hoover
Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York was placed in nomination by delegates who opposed the Hoover support, which continued until the final balloting, when Varney received 36 votes to Hoover's 45. On the first roll all Varney had 62 and Hoover 42.

Live scenes preceded the actual voting, including several manifestations of discussion within the Prohibitionist ranks following the rallies for Hoover and Smith.

Hammond Gets Mad
Delegate John B. Hammond, former chief of police of Des Moines, Ia., gave vent to his anti-Hoover wrath by throwing his badge on the table, declaring that the party had been betrayed, and walked out. He charged that the officers of the convention had "sold out" to Hoover.

There was a fist fight in the midst of the proceedings, the Rev. A. D. Lindsay of Britton, Okla., going to the defense of an old man he said was being annoyed by a youth.

Immediately after his nomination, Mr. Varney announced that he would conduct an active speaking campaign throughout the south in an effort to unite all dry forces.

Calls It A Burlesque
Smith's nomination and votes for him on the first ballot caused delegate Clinton N. Howard, Rochester, N. Y., to march in front of the speaker's platform for four minutes shouting, "this is a burlesque; such actions as this make our party the laughing stock of the country."

DIXONITES HURT
IN AUTO CRASH
SOUTH OF POLOMrs. Lloyd Sheller and Children Painfully
Injured in Wreck

Mrs. Lloyd Sheller and her little son and daughter of 902 Galena avenue, Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cooley of Sterling and their guest, a Mrs. Darst, suffered painful injuries in an automobile accident on route 26, south of Polo, at about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when a Dodge sedan, owned and driven by Mr. Cooley was wrecked when he turned off the pavement to avoid collision with two cars which had stopped in front of him. His car went into the ditch, struck a culvert and turned over, pitching the little Sheller girl through the windshield and breaking every glass in the car.

Mrs. Sheller was probably most seriously injured, sustaining bruises about the body, especially severe about the hips, and cuts and bruises about the head. Her two children also sustained painful cuts, while Mr. Cooley was badly cut on the right arm and hand.

A Polo physician was summoned to care for the injured and Mrs. Sheller was later brought to her home in this city in an ambulance. No arrests were made, agreement concerning damages was reached by all concerned in the presence of State Motorcycle Office Kenneth Church of Dixon, who arrived on the scene soon after the accident, in which three cars were involved.

According to the story of witnesses Mrs. Willis Coffman of Polo, driving north in a Ford sedan, turned suddenly to the left side of the road, apparently to drive into a farm yard, and stopped her car. Directly behind her was W. J. Sprinkle of Chicago, in a Dodge sedan. He was able to stop his car before hitting the Ford, but Mr. Cooley, following the Chicago car closely, was unable to stop, and turned off the pavement to avoid a crash, with the above result.

JUDGE THOMPSON IN BITTER ATTACK ON REPUBLICAN TICKET

Indicates That He Is More Honest Than His Opponents

Chicago, July 13—(AP)—Judge Floyd E. Thompson, Democratic nominee for Governor, told the Greene County Club of Chicago last night that the main issue in the gubernatorial campaign is the choice of a governor that will give the best business administration.

It makes little difference to the people, he said, whether a Democrat or Republican is elected governor because he has nothing to do with the tariff or with international relations, but is chosen to run the business of the state.

He repeated his charges that Louis L. Emmerson, Secretary of State, and his Republican opponent, and Oscar Carlstrom, Attorney General, have converted interest on public funds to their personal use and added that "it is no answer to these charges to say that Lincoln was an honest man."

Wants To See Figures
"The charges I have made are specific," declared Judge Thompson, "and the people are entitled to specific answers. The records which public officers are required to keep will furnish the answers. These officers can say where the public funds were deposited and the terms of deposit. They can show exactly how much interest was earned on state funds and who got it. This money belongs to the taxpayers of the state and those they placed in charge of collecting and safeguarding these public funds are liable to account for the principal and all the interest earned on them."

Honesty and decency in public life is far more important than the party label, Judge Thompson declared and praised the heads of both the Democrat and Republican national tickets but reiterated his assertion that the politics of the next governor of Illinois did not make so much difference if the officials were honest.

Huge Bus Here on Cross Country Tour

A huge motor bus, one of the largest ever seen here, was in Dixon Thursday evening, carrying a party of college instructors and students on a transcontinental field trip from Clark College, Worcester, Mass., to the west coast, via Yellowstone Park, and back to Worcester by the southern route. The party is in charge of Dr. Preston E. James of the University of Michigan, and Mrs. Preston E. James is chaperone, there being 22 young ladies and four gentlemen in the party. The trip started July 9 and is scheduled to end Aug. 24.

The big bus, owned by the New York Central Railroad Co., is like a Pullman car. It weighs six tons empty and is equipped with reclining chairs, electric fans, etc., and there are compartments for the baggage above the chairs.

CHASE GYPSIES OUT

Peoria, Ill., July 13—(AP)—A tribe of 50 gypsies was ordered out of town by the police after a fruitless search for valuables when the gypsies were arrested on charges of picking pockets. E. D. CHANDLER OF
EAST GROVE PASSED
AWAY THURSDAYPioneer Settler Was Uncle of Dr. Chandler of
This City

Elnahan D. Chandler, one and almost the last of the early pioneers of East Grove Township, Lee County, passed away at his home in that township on Thursday, July 12th, 1928, having arrived at the age of 90 years. For over 71 years he has resided in East Grove Township, suffering all the hardships of the early pioneer days, living to see the country around settled up and enjoying the new friendships. For some time he has suffered the infirmities of old age and was unable to get around to attend the funeral of his daughter, Miss Pansy, which occurred about two weeks ago, much to his regret.

Mr. Chandler was born in Union County, Ohio, in 1838, the son of Winthrop and Lucy Hammond Chandler. Mr. Chandler was married twice, his first wife being Miss Martha Bradshaw. To this union there still survive four children, Mrs. Lucy M. Fry, Mrs. Minnie Boese, Mrs. Eva Buttrick and Dorwin Chandler.

In 1868 he was married to Mrs. Annie Briggs who still survives him as well as the following children, Elliott Chandler, Mrs. Myrtle Reuter and Lawrence Chandler. The other daughter, Miss Pansy Chandler preceded him in death just two weeks ago, her death occurring in Dixon, July first.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, July 14th from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Reuter at 2 o'clock and at 2:30 o'clock the Union Church in East Grove, conducted by Rev. Dieckers of the Methodist church of Amboy and interment will be made by the side of his beloved daughter in Prairie Repose cemetery at Amboy.

Mr. Chandler is also survived by eighteen grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren, together with other relatives and a host of friends.

DIXON GOLFERS IN THIRD PLACE AFTER
HARD FOUGHT GAMESterling Had One Point
Advantage at Close of Tourney

A valiant effort on the part of the Dixon Country Club golfers to overtake sterling's team for runner-up position in the final round of the Lincoln Highway tournament at Kishwaukee Country Club at DeKalb Thursday afternoon fell just one point short, and as a result the Dixon team, which faced a handicap of eight points before the final nine holes were started was forced to be content with third place.

As was expected Kishwaukee Club players ran away with the 71-hole tournament with Sterling second. The clubs finished:

|----------------------|----------|
| Kishwaukee, DeKalb | 11 down |
| Rock River, Sterling | 137 down |
| Dixon | 138 down |
| Morrison | 164 down |
| Oregon | 170 down |
| Clinton, Ia. | 171 down |
| Polo | 252 down |

Low individual score went to Huhta of DeKalb who was up 26, and Oakland of DeKalb was runner-up with 11 plus. These two captured the second and third flight trophies, other flight winners being:

|------------------------------------|
| First—Markle, Polo, 5 up. |
| Fourth—Raymond, Dixon, 8 down. |
| Fifth—Lathi, DeKalb, 4 down. |
| Sixth—Prentiss, Sterling, 14 down. |
| Seventh—Rorer, Dixon, 14 down. |
| Eighth—Alaban, Oregon, 30 down. |

Huhta's play throughout the tournament was described as sensational as he scored several 24's for nine holes, and made a high 6 up for nine holes. Garner of DeKalb also shot well, making a 9 up in one round.

Oliver Rogers, Jr. of Dixon, who took A. A. Rowland's place on the last day of play, also played well finishing his 36 holes 1 down.

The scores of the Dixon players for the 72 holes were:

|------------------------|---------|
| Rogers, Jr. (36 holes) | 1 down |
| Dowland, (36 holes) | 19 down |
| Roe | 6 down |
| Rogers, Sr. | 13 down |

| Rorer | 14 down |

Tim Sullivan of Dixon was the official scorer for the tournament, giving complete satisfaction to all the players.

SEVEN KENTUCKIANS
DIED THIS MORNING
IN ELECTRIC CHAIRFour White Men and Three Negroes Executed for Murder

Edyville, Ky., July 13—(AP)—Seven men, convicted murderers all, were electrocuted between midnight and 1:30 o'clock this morning at the state penitentiary here.

Seven wooden coffins later today were placed on trestles near the prison gates awaiting disposition of relatives of the executed ones whose bodies, in death house garments, rested within the unchained boxes.

Four Whites—Three of them very young, and three negroes made up the seven whose deaths in the electric chair set a record for Kentucky. Sullen, defiant and prayerful by turns during their stay in the death house, the condemned men were reduced to fear to a condition bordering upon collapse as midnight approached.

Although there was no clock going to sound the hours, the prisoners sensed the time and all talk died away long before the death march started at 12:15. With heads supported in cupped hands, they sat silent, their bodies shaken by chills despite the intense heat in the squat house that had been their home in the prison. In plain view was the execution chamber and the chair.

The white men went to the chair first, Milford "Red" Lawson, 35, Corbin, Ky., leading the way. He said he "was ready to forgive everybody" and was strapped in quickly. The murder of a neighbor in his mountain cabin had brought him there.

Orlando Seymour, 21, Louisville was the second. A dramatic attempt to obtain a stay for him last night had failed and he met his fate in a 50-second.

When the time for his execution approached he confessed the murder for which he had been convicted, that of a Louisville merchant.

Hascue Dockery, 21, Harlan, Ky., followed. Originally he had been selected to die first but, just as the hum of the death chair dynamo filled the cell block, he asked for a priest, explaining that he wished to become a Roman Catholic. He was received into the church. Uttering no word, he dragged slowly into the chair chamber and, as the hood was adjusted, started mumbling prayers.

He was charged with slaying two women and a man.

Charles Paul Mitra, 23, St. Louis Mo., was the fourth. Convicted of the murder of a grocer in Louisville, in an attempted holdup, he had been rather disdainful in his attitude toward the guards since the confinement here. He died in three minutes without making any statement.

William Moore, 45, Louisville, was the first to die. He said nothing. James Howard, also of Louisville entered the chamber singing "Sweet Lily of the Valley" and, as he sank back in the chair, waved his hand, saying "Gentlemen, how are you all feeling tonight?" The last was Clarence McQueen, 38, Cynthia, who hummed a song and paid close attention to the manner in which the straps were adjusted.

Relatives of the executed men who had seen them alive for the last time shortly after the reading of the death warrants were to be permitted to take the bodies away today.

PEACE PLAN
AGREEMENTKellogg Treaty for Outlawing War Also Pleases France

Washington, July 13—(AP)—Secretary Kellogg's revised treaty for outlawing war is entirely acceptable to Germany and a favorable reply from France is expected within a few days.

A note signed by Acting Foreign Minister Schubert at Berlin, detailing his country's attitude was made public at the state department last night, while Ambassador Claudel called upon Mr. Kellogg to tell him of the forthcoming French reply.

French Acceptance Tomorrow
This will probably be handed to Ambassador Herrick at Paris tomorrow, he said, on the great French holiday celebrating the fall of the bastille. The reply he described as "in acceptance of the explanations and interpretations of the proposed pact as outlined by Mr. Kellogg in his note of June 23."

Germany Ready To Sign
Germany's acceptance was sweeping and unqualified, and the note declared that the Berlin government "was ready to sign the treaty at once in the form in which it was submitted. A draft of the proposed pact was sent simultaneously to fourteen nations, including in addition to France and Germany, Great Britain, Japan, and Italy. Germany was the first to reply.

PHIL WARD WILL

DIST. ATTORNEYNew Requirements of Office Impell Him to Resign

Philip H. Ward of Sterling, Assistant United States Attorney, has tendered his resignation to the Attorney General, to become effective Aug. 15, 1928.

The policy under the present United States Attorney, George E. Q. Johnson, is that the work in the Freeport court will be conducted more directly from the Chicago office, and the assistant assigned there will give some time to the work at Chicago. In view of this change of policy Mr. Ward has announced that he has advised the United States Attorney that he can not continue, as the demands of his private practice are such that he could not give it sufficient time.

With reference to Mr. Ward's work in the Western Division, Mr. Johnson said, "Mr. Ward has tendered his resignation of his own volition. His work has been much appreciated by me. During the time that he has been in office over the last seven years he has done much important work. Among others, twenty-one separate cases for the condemnation of land for Camp Grant were disposed of and many violations of Federal law growing out of the Government's activity at the camp. Mr. Ward handled the Voelkel Distillery case, one of the largest distilleries in the Western Division. As a result of this 72,000 bottles of liquor were destroyed and those guilty served terms in prison."

Springfield, Ill., July 13—(AP)—Zert Blewitt, alleged master bootlegger, who retaliated when a prohibition agent raided his Schuyler county farm, by charging that the agent committed theft and then started a fire to cover it up, today is in jail again and a fully equipped brewery on Riverside Drive, south of Havana is in possession of government agents.

Value of the brewery was estimated at $10,000. Beside Blewitt, who is known in Schuyler and Adams counties as Bert Williams, agents arrested Frank Trent, Jay Smith, Ray Burns, Carl McCracken, Harrison Mann, Chester Kinneer and Joe Krouch in the brewery raid.

Blewitt is already under federal indictment on charges of conspiracy and violation of the prohibition laws. Pending his trial at the next term of court, he was out on bond.

ROWLAND TEAM WON

Friends of Atty. Robert Warner are today accusing him openly of being a poor picker—for at the fine chicken supper which followed Thursday afternoon's golf play at the Dixon Country Club, Robert picked an aggregation of golfers whose total scores were less than those of the men picked by A. A. Rowland. After the twenty-eight contestants in the afternoon's play had turned in their cards, Messrs. Warner and Rowland started alternate picking from the names of those who had played, neither of the "captains" knowing what scores their selections had made during the afternoon. Bob's "jury" was second.

MADE FINE SCORE

KIDNAPPED BOY IS FOUND BEFORE THE
RANSOM WAS PAIDFour-Year-Old Miami Boy
Stolen From His Bed
Last Night

Miami, Fla., July 13—(AP)—Billy McAllister, four-year-old, who was kidnapped last night from the home of his mother here, was found unhurt in a Coral Gables vacant house this morning by persons living next door, who heard him pounding on the door of a closet in which he was locked.

The child said his kidnappers were a "fat man and woman." An hour before the boy was brought home Mrs. E. E. McAllister, his grand-mother, a wealthy Miami hotel owner, had completed arrangements for paying $8,000 ransom asked for his return.

Her decision came after a second telephone call to the McAllister home this morning from a man who said the abductors would return Billy to his home in an automobile provided $8,000 in cash was available for immediate exchange and no police officers were summoned to the vicinity.

Fearful for the safety of the boy the grandmother and the widowed mother, Mrs. May McAllister, requested police to halt their investigation and made ready to meet the demands of the kidnappers.

The child could give only a meagre description of his abductors and police were not hopeful the information could be used to advantage in running them down.

Billy was stolen from his ground floor bed room about 9:30 o'clock last night while only his grandmother was in the house. She heard the child scream and rushed to the bedroom to find him missing and the window screen propped open.

BULLETIN.
London, July 13—(AP)—A Reuters dispatch from Oslo quotes an official telegram agency message from Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, as stating that the ice breaker Krassin has reached Captain Sora, Italian Alpine leader. No confirmation of this has been received from any other source.

Captain Sora left Kings Bay about six week ago with the Danish engineer Varming and the Dutchman Van Dongen to seek Dr. Finn Malmgren and his two Italian companions, Captain Zappi and Mariano.

Moscow, July 13—(AP)—The Russian ice breaker Krassin rescued all five survivors of the Italia who were on the ice near Foin Island, including Natale Cecconi, motor chief of the Italia, rumors of whose death have often been denied.

WINNING AGAINST ARCTIC
Copyright, 1928.
(By The Associated Press)
Moscow, July 13—(AP)—Spurring on relentlessly in what now appears to be a winning fight against the Arctic, the powerful Russian ice-breaker Krassin has rescued five more of the crew of the ill-fated dirigible Italia and was pounding on today to make further rescues.

Just a few hours after the brilliant rescue of Captains Albert Mariano and Filippo Zappi, members of the Italia's walking party, the Krassin crashed through the ice floes to reach the Viglieri group which for 48 days had been stranded near Foin Island off Northeast Land.

Looks For Other Groups
With seven of the sixteen men of the Italia safely aboard, the Krassin immediately turned its attention to picking up several rescue groups which have become stranded themselves and kept a sharp lookout for the missing group of Captain Roald Amundsen in the hope that the great drama of the Arctic which has been in progress for the past seven weeks might reach its climax in one fell swoop.

The Viglieri group rescued yesterday, was made up of Lieutenant Alfredo Viglieri, Prof. F. Behounek, Giuseppe Biogli, Filippo Troiano and Natale Cecconi. These men were in the gondola of the Italia when the North Pole dirigible crashed on May 25 and constituted the main part of the Italia's crew for which hope had been held out.

General Umberto Nobile, leader of the expedition, was a member of this group until he was rescued on June 24 by the Swedish flier, Lieutenant Einar Lundborg.

World Has Watched
For more than a month, the eyes of the world had been centered upon the little party off Foin Island. Day after day Biogli, the Italia's radio operator, kept in touch with civilization and directed rescue efforts by means of his wireless equipment. It was he who first guided the rescuing airplanes to the camping place and kept the world informed of the party's position until the Krassin could pound its way through the ice to reach them.

Gives Detailed Report
A full report of the rescue of the Viglieri group was received in Moscow today from Professor Samolovitch, expedition. His report follows:

Within three miles from the Viglieri group, the Krassin sighted the remnants of an airplane, the abandoned machine of the Swedish flier Lieutenant Lundborg, and the red tent of the Italia from which was coming smoke signals in response to the deafening siren blasts continually sounded from the Krassin.

If all that we say is a single day.
With never a word left out
Were printed each night
In clear black and white,
'Twould prove queer reading, no doubt.

And then just suppose
Ere one's eyes he could close

And I more than half think
Would be smoother in life's tangled thread.

Kingdom-Mt. Union Aid Held Meeting

The Kingdom-Mt. Union Aid Society met on Wednesday, July 11, in an all day meeting with Mrs. Ivan Floto at her home in the kingdom.

A delicious chicken dinner was enjoyed at noon by the members and guests present.

The meeting was called to order in the afternoon by the Vice President, asking all to join in a hymn. This was followed by a Scripture reading. Minutes of the previous meeting and roll call were read by the Secretary.

A new member, Mrs. Maurice Sanford, was welcomed into the society. There being no other business to come before the society the meeting was turned over to the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Ralph Ulevan.

The following program was beautifully given and much enjoyed:

Piano Selection—Miss Inez Brink.

Reading—Mrs. Dorothy Lievan.

Puzzle Reading—Mrs. Arthur Hoban.

The meeting was then closed by all joining in singing a hymn and repeating the Lord's prayer. The next program committee is composed of Mrs. Jule Hill, chairman; Mrs. Will Floto and Mrs. Scott Lawery as assistants.

The guests departed late in the afternoon expressing their thanks to Mrs. Floto for the delightful day spent at her home and to meet again in two weeks with Mrs. Harvey Stevens and Mrs. Lester Ammen at their home in the Kingdom.

Today Was Lucky Day for Them

Some folks claim that today in being Friday, the 13th, is unlucky, and then again those who are without the inclination to superstition, claim that it is not unlucky, but lucky.

Anyway, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Giannoni of Galena avenue did not think the 13th of July unlucky and ten years ago in Chicago chose it for their wedding day, and ever since have deemed it lucky, rather than unlucky. Today they are quietly celebrating their tenth wedding anniversary with their family at their home and are receiving the congratulations of relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. U. Bardwell, Misses Julia Orvis, Nonie Rosbrook and Annie Estace and Clara Gwen Bardwell visited in Rockford Thursday.

MENU for the FAMILY

BREAKFAST—Grape fruit, scrambled eggs with rice, bran muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetable hash baked lettuce sandwiches, peanut cookies, egg lemonade.

DINNER—Broiled lamb chops, potatoes au gratin, peas and milk salad, red raspberry shortcake, milk coffee.

Plain, old-fashioned biscuit dough is used for the raspberry shortcake. Plenty of plain cream should be served with a raspberry shortcake, for the berries themselves are not as juicy as strawberries.

Peas and Mint Salad

One and one-half cups cooked fresh peas, 3 cups lemon jelly, 1 bunch fresh mint leaves, 1-2 cup diced celery, few grains salt.

The peas should be well seasoned when cooked. Make the jelly after your favorite lemon jelly rule, using less sugar than usual. Chop mint leaves and add to the hot jelly. When cool, strain. Let stand until beginning to set and add peas and celery. Turn into small molds dipped in cold water. Place on ice to chill and become firm. Unmold and serve in nests of lettuce with French dressing to which a few chopped mint leaves have been added.

A few drops of green vegetable coloring can be added to the jelly.

If fresh mint is not plentiful, two or three drops of oil mint can be added to jelly after it has cooled.

Quiet Wedding Last Evening

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Peeler, 903 E. Chamberlain street last evening a very quiet wedding was solemnized by Rev. W. W. Marshall, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, when Henry Chamness of Clear Springs, Ill., and Miss Edith Beames, of Peoria, Ill., were united in marriage. The wedding is the culmination of a romance which had its inception at the State Hospital, where both the principals in the wedding are valued employees, Mr. Chamness being one of the chefs, and his bride an attendant.

The bridal couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Peeler. Mr. Peeler is the dietitian at the state hospital, and his wife has charge of the dining room, both responsible positions at the institution. The Peeler home was gay with garden flowers for the wedding. The bride was handsomely attired in blue crepe and the matron of honor was prettily gowned in green crepe.

After the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was enjoyed. Mrs. Mary D. Peeler, mother of R. D. Peeler, assisting the guests being the bridal party, and attendants, and Mrs. Peeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamness then left for Chicago where they will spend a week, and on their return will take up their work at the state hospital.

Short Interviews With Famous Women

BY NEA Service.

"American women have a tremendous advantage over their old-world sisters in one respect," said Maria Jeritza, famous soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

"They have such independence, such self-reliance and freedom in the way they can conduct their lives that it gives them a head start towards getting what they want from this world."

"But European women are fast following their lead. Formerly European women thought that independence and a certain freedom of thought and action in a woman would prove so distasteful to men that such women could not carry."

"But they see now that American women have no trouble getting husbands, in fact get them very easily."

"American women because of this, are in the vanguard of the woman's movement. For of course women want to get married."

"And the attitude of American husbands towards their wives' careers has had its effect all over the world. The wise man today doesn't interfere with his wife's career. He goes his own way in his own career, there by escaping the stigma of being known as the husband of this famous singer or that author."

"In the last two decades, American women have been responsible for many acceptable changes in woman's sphere."

FASHION HINTS—

One-Sidedness—New skirts affect irregular hemlines, with emphasis on one side. A tulleur has its fullness concentrated in a pleated left-hip godet that is much longer than the rest of the skirt.

Rear Chic—A medium-sized natural colored ballbunt hat has winder black brim accented by a group of autumn colored flowers.

Flowered Strap—Mid-summer chiffon and lace evening gowns may have one shoulder strap a garland of colorful flowers and the other a strap of self material.

Hip Kerchief—A gaudy Scotch plaid chiffon kerchief tied around the hips of a white chiffon dress gives a jaunty gypsy air to it.

Lace Cape—A cream colored lace dinner gown has a fluttering cape of pink lace that is detachable. This is the latest version of the dinner jacket.

Skull Turbans—The latest hat is the skull turban. A smart one of burnt orange uses felt, swathed in straw for its media. They look Arabian.

Chiffon Flounce—A long cape of black chiffon velvet has an eight-inch circular flounce around its lower edge of black chiffon. Its collar is chiffon, too.

Pointed Cape—A yellow flowered chiffon evening gown has a cape back that points below the waistline. The circular skirt points similarly, to the floor.

Ring Bows—A black faille suit has its coat tie at the neck and waist with bows that knot through white bone rings.

Striped Shoes—New bathing shoes loom like zebras in their black-white stripes. They are of toweling or other washable materials, with rough soles.

Tricolor's Importance—Red, white and blue is effectively carried out in a white pleated skirt, smart red jacket with blue scarf, blue sports shoes and blue and red hat.

Bobbit Blue—A new blue for street wear and evening is cobalt blue, a clear, penetrating shade. Fashion predicts its importance in the autumn wardrobe.

White Wings—A black felt hat, with small, turned down brim, takes two drooping white wings for its trimming on the right side.

Back Panel—An afternoon frock of grey figured chiffon has a back collar of pleated chiffon, lace edged, that extends like a panel clear below the frock's hem.

Good Thoughts for Good People

I go the way of all the earth; be thou strong therefore, and show thyself a man. And keep the charge of the Lord, thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself.—I Kings.

Labour to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire—conscience.—George Washington.

The elimination of fear is the bringing in of security and supply.—Henry Ford.

There are two classes: those who work and those who explain how work ought to be done.—Lord Dewart.

Based on the understanding that God is, in reality, the Life of man, and that all may confidently look to Him for sustenance, such a recognition rises to the unassailable quality of practical proof. When their thinking is thus spiritually directed, mortals find themselves usefully, profitably, and permanently employed, with opportunities immeasurably enhanced to express peace and good will to all.

INSANE DE KALB MOTHER KILLED HER OWN BABY

Woman Who Smothered Three Months Old Baby Sent to Asylum

Confessing to infanticide, Mrs. Albert Reinhardt, 26, of 113 East Roosevelt street, DeKalb, was committed to the Elgin state hospital for the insane when given a sanity hearing in the court of County Judge William Pond Thursday. In her confession, Mrs. Reinhardt stated that she placed a piece of cloth over the baby's nose and mouth on Monday afternoon and held it there until the child was dead. Dona Mae was three months old. When brought before the county court the mother stated that she killed her daughter because she "was afraid she couldn't take care of her."

Mrs. Reinhardt was taken to the county jail at Sycamore by Sheriff Helena Dolder and two deputy sheriffs after Officer Rowe had secured a warrant from State's Attorney Cassius Poust charging Mrs. Reinhardt with insanity. During the trial to Sycamore Mrs. Reinhardt told Mrs. Dolder that she had killed her own child but could give no explanation for her action. She was placed in a special cell in the jail with three federal women prisoners, who took turns in watching over the DeKalb mother the entire night.

Thursday morning Mrs. Reinhardt was taken before Judge William Pond of the county court, who had impaneled a jury to hear the case. During the hearing Mrs. Reinhardt told the court that she had killed her child by placing a piece of cloth over its face. She at first could give no reason, but later said that she was afraid she couldn't take care of the baby. Mr. Reinhardt also appeared in court and told the jury that his wife had acted queerly for some time past and that several years ago she had attempted to take her own life by strangling. But he did not think that she killed the baby. Dr. Telford and Officer Rowe were also witnesses, both stating that she had confessed to them. Dr. Telford also testified that his opinion was that she was mentally deranged. The jury was then given the case and within a few minutes returned with a verdict that Mrs. Reinhardt was insane and recommended that the court send her to the Elgin state hospital.

Air Station Talk

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

KNX, Los Angeles, has started construction on a new studio and transmitter building.

Daily programs of WLW now are being sent out on short waves, in addition to the broadcast band assignment. This transmission, which is on 52.03 meters, begins at 6 p. m., Eastern time.

Not unlike the sailors who go rowing in a park as soon as they set foot on land are the radio operators of KFI, Los Angeles. They spend most of their spare time with short wave amateur sets.

Popular taste, says Lila Grey of WBBM, Chicago, is drifting away from "blues" songs and snappy orchestral numbers. She finds the public now is better pleased with soft, slow, dreamy melodies, ballads and love songs.

Foreign language courses are in full swing at WNYC, New York's municipal station. V. Harrison Berlitz, eminent professor of languages and director of the courses in German, Italian, French and Spanish, is remaining in the city all summer to continue his radio work.

"How come hens and roosters during your noon organ recital the other day?" wrote a listener to KOA, Denver. The reason was that KOA had a pick-up it had not counted on. Some staff member had inadvertently left a studio window open when a neighbor's chickens were holding a convention.

Women often are more interested in the appearance of their men folks than in their own looks, says Mrs. Florence Frey, who gives beauty hints from WSAI, Cincinnati. She bases her conclusion upon the fact that a third of her letters from listeners ask how to improve the appearance of some man.

Mayor Roy K. Patch of Beverly, Mass., is a star artist of WEBZ-WBZA, Springfield and Boston. Mayor Patch has been a true general, a wise-cracking jester and now is manager and second tenor of a male choral group. Constituents form a large part of his audience. He says he gets more applause letters for one broadcast than for laying out a whole new sewer. A half hour at the mike, he says, is good relaxation and is his favorite hobby.

EACH OF BYRD'S MEN WILL CARRY HEAVY WARDROBE

200 Pieces of Warm Clothing for South Polar Journey

By HORTENSE SAUNDERS

NEA Service Writer
New York—Assembling a wedding trousseau, or collecting odd bits for a court presentation is mere child's play compared to the sartorial effort involved before setting out for the anti-Arctic regions.

And if Commander Byrd and his party of explorers are not the last word in swank when they reach the iceberg zone, it is not because they are not giving time and expense to their raiment.

Anyone curious about polar styles should drop in at the Byrd headquarters here and see the rooms strewn with samples of fur coats, helmets, socks, and balbriggan underwear and hear the weighty arguments that go on as to what type will be most nifty and dashing for life on an ice barrier.

200 Pieces for Each Man
Commander Byrd estimates that each of the 60 men on the trip will have at least 200 pieces of wearing apparel, neatly marked with his own name and packed in sea bags.

This does not include the common garden variety of apparel that each will wear on the boat trip into the anti-Arctic—all this will be stored at the last stop, Dunedin, and will be parked there for more than a year until the party returns to a temperate zone.

Large consignments of furs are on their way to New York from Alaska to be made into coats and parkas for the crew. A parka is a short cape made of reindeer skin, lined with fawnskin, that is worn over a regulation Arctic suit as a wind-breaker. It is large and loose, absolutely gale-proof, and is the finishing touch to the Arctic ensemble.

In military there is a wide choice of helmets, fur and wool and leather caps, and towering affairs that look like very large tea cozies, and do for the head what the cozy does for the tea pot. Then there is the large fur-lined hood, that fits over the helmet, like a cowl.

Mittens Two Feet Long
Mittens achieve unbelievable proportions and are worn, child-fashion, suspended from a cord about the neck. Some are nearly two feet long, a foot wide and a couple of inches thick—regular baby mattresses. What an explorer's glove box, if he had one, would look like is a thought to conjure with.

And when you build shoes on the fireless cooker plan, you need must forget daintiness and well-turned ankles. Frozen feet are very common, and, they say, most unpleasant, so shoes have been specially made with felt soles, packed with senna grass from Finland, which serves as an insulator to keep in the natural heat. Thus the water-proof "mukluks" and the overshoes to wear over these neat walking shoes take on the most exaggerated and fantastic proportions. Then there are fur-lined mocassins, fur and wool-lined boots, ski boots, hip boots, and other types of other footwear.

Fur and Wool
Socks of wool are thick and bungy, and there are fur ones to be worn over these, made with the fur on the inside so that the moisture of the foot inside the stockings may go through the fur and onto the hide. This minimizes the dampness, and the damp foot is the one that is in danger of freezing.

Wool shirts and "heebies" appeal to one's sense of the comfortable rather than of the beautiful, though they are of the finest materials available.
The really clothes-conscious explorer covers every part of himself but his eyes when he is finally clothed for a day's jaunt. As a last touch, he covers that last exposed area with large goggles to prevent blindness from the expanse of dazzling snow.

Besides all the "ready-mades" that are being taken on this expedition, many pelts are shipped in the piece. Once the voyage is under way the sail-makers will be kept busy making parkas and loose coats. Since these are simple in cut, and nil as to fit, they can be fashioned quite as adequately by the sailmaker as they could by a Regent street tailor.

Potatoes Escaped Bugs: But by Rains

McClure, Ill., July 12—(AP)—Potatoes in the rich Wolf Lake-McClure district escaped the bugs but fell prey to the floods.

Reduction in the crop prospect of approximately 60 per cent due to excessive rains was estimated on the basis of reports from growers in a survey just completed by inspectors from the state department of agriculture.

When the season opened this fifteen mile strip along the Mississippi in the northern part of Alexander county, one of the richest gardens in Illinois, gave every evidence of a bumper crop. The early plants suffered no insect damage, and blights were carefully guarded against by growers. But where the bugs and blights failed, the rains succeeded. Growers here do not plan to market until prices are strengthened although usually they have a large offering for the early season market. Potatoes are not the only fruit of this valley. Asparagus, cucumbers, raspberries, melons and tomatoes are produced in large quantities, and an abundant supply of spinach will be harvested this year.

G. O. P. Means "Get Out Publicity" To Chairman Work and His Aide

Chairman of the Republican National Committee Hubert Work, left, and Henry J. Allen, Kansas publisher and dictator of publicity, are pictured here at a conference in Washington. One of their first problems was the suggestion of Senator Arthur Capper that the campaign budget be limited to $3,000,000 this year.

Insanity Among Younger People

By Alex S. Hershfield, M. D. Chicago State Alienist

Illinois State Psychopathic Institute
(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. President Coolidge is the honorary president of the Gorgas Memorial, which has its headquarters at 400 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago.)

There is a mental disease which has received much public notoriety because of its common use in defense of criminals. This disease is known as dementia praecox, or loss of mind at an early age. This premature mental decay constitutes fifteen to twenty-five per cent of all insanities and because of the chronic nature of this form of mental disease makes up about fifty per cent of the patients in the state hospitals.

Most of the patients are under twenty-five years of age when the disease develops although some may not show marked signs before forty or even older.

The significant point in this form of mental illness is the fact that many suspicious signs are found among school children. Those with a tendency towards dementia praecox appear shy, form few if any friendships and remain more or less detached from the daily life of others. They seem to be dreaming most of the time, leave their work undone, and do not seem to trouble to learn their lessons. On the other hand some children with a tendency to dementia praecox may be very brilliant students and even precocious mentally. One marked point is the indifference to things that evoke emotions or feelings in the normal child. That which so commonly passes for negligence, lack of imagination, or indifference to friends should excite parents to a closer examination of the child's mental condition. Perhaps early adjustment may save a mind from going on the rocks. But this is not all. More knowledge of mental hygiene is needed by the general public to help not only to prevent conditions that lead to insanity such as dementia praecox, but also to learn to keep the milder cases at home for care and treatment. The study of mental health will be the means of reducing insanity and will keep many from becoming inmates of state hospitals. The hope of the future lies in methods and means of preventing mental disease rather than in housing the victims in state institutions.

DECLARE CURSE IS ON PROPERTY SOLD BY VOLIVA

Waukegan, Ill., July 12—(AP)—Mrs. John Edgar, Sr., of Zion, Ill., staunch follower of the late Dr. John Alexander Dowrie, founder of Zion City, believes "the curse of God Almighty is upon the land Voliva has sold to Bartlett."

Wilbur Glenn Voliva is overseer of Zion. Bartlett is the real estate dealer who recently purchased a section of land belonging to Zion.

William Lumsen was killed while at work on the Bartlett subdivision yesterday. Mrs. Edgar said Lumsen was the third man to be killed there since the land was sold.

These deaths, she said, show the existence of a curse on the property. Several other followers of Dr. Dowrie have maintained that all the original Zion City site is "Holy Land," and that it should not be sold to outsiders nor voted outside the city limits as has been done in recent years.

Illustrated signs, showing where pedestrians may cross busy streets and motorists must give them right of way, is one suggestion for "safety first" being considered by the Paris police.

NEXT WEEK TO BE TOUGH ONE ON THE BRULE RIVER FISH

Two Very Prominent Citizens to Angle for Big Trout

Superior, Wis., July 13—(AP)—Old Mountain, dean of Brule trout, might do well to keep in the shade of the rocks and watch his food next week, for two prominent citizens will be on the river.

President Coolidge will have competition of merit when Secretary Hoover arrives at Cedar Island Lodge for a two days visit. The Republican nominee is an experienced angler, and knows the streams and rivers of this region. He has also done a good deal of sea fishing.

The question interesting members of the presidential party is whether the President or his guest will catch the largest trout. Old Mountain, reputed to weigh twenty pounds, lurks in the rapids of the Brule, south of Cedar Island Lodge, and here the Indian guide, John Larock, will take them.

Is Wary Old Warrior
Many are the tales old fishermen tell of the huge trout and of battles with him. Old Mountain, in his tiff with anglers, has lost an eye, but it has to be a cleverly hidden hook to fool him, the fight always ends with a disappointed fisherman and a broken line or pole.

In his fishing competition with Secretary Hoover, President Coolidge will find of great use a special tackle box for whose presentation to him an appointment had been made today by the student body and faculty of the Superior Central High School.

Legal Aspects Late War Subject of Book

Springfield, Ill., July 13—(AP)—Legal aspects of the World War are dealt with thoroughly in a voluminous production of Professor James Wilford Garner, of the University of Illinois Department of Political Science, which has just appeared from the press, entitled "International Law and the World War."

It is the second of Professor Garner's recent books. The last one dealt with American foreign policies. Professor Garner will go to Europe this fall, on leave of absence from the state university, gathering material for another book.

More than a thousand pages, many of them quoting references in support of his treatise, are in the two volumes. It is a comprehensive story of the World War from the view point of an international lawyer. Dealing with the outlook for the future and in conclusion, Doctor Garner writes:

"It was frequently asserted during the course of the late war that the Hague conventions had been reduced to 'scraps of paper,' that international law had been destroyed and the like. It is quite true that practically every one of the Hague conventions, to say nothing of many of the customary rules of international law, were violated, some of them many times, deliberately and flagrantly."

"Germany was of course the chief offender although the other belligerents were by no means guiltless. * * * It is idle to say that the system of international law has been destroyed. Its prestige has suffered; it has been discredited in the minds of some persons; its weaknesses have been demonstrated as never before; but as a system it was no more destroyed by the recent war than outbreaks of crime in a community destroy the criminal law."

"International law can never be destroyed so long as civilization endures. It is as Lord Bryce observes, 'the only thing which stands between us and primitive savagery.' That it will be preserved, revitalized, and more generally respected in the future may be confidently assumed."

HOOVER IS SILENT UNTIL HIS SPEECH DUE AUGUST 11th

Will Not Discuss Views in Advance of Formal
Notification

Washington, July 12—(AP)—Following his indicated policy, Secretary Hoover has met a request for an expression of his views on farm relief with a statement that the issue will be discussed fully in his speech accepting the presidential nomination. The request came from William H. Settle, President of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation and was identical with one sent to Governor Smith, New York.

His answer was in line with the policy enunciated early in the week by Chairman Work of the Republican National Committee, who said that Mr. Hoover would make no further statements on campaign issues until he delivers his speech of acceptance at Palo Alto August 11.

Journeying across the continent next week to his California home, Mr. Hoover will receive en route several party leaders and state officials. The Secretary has frowned on proposals for receptions along the route other than one to be held at San Francisco July 20. In Chicago Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will be guests of Vice President and Mrs. Dawes.

Significance is attached by some observers here to the Dawes-Hoover meeting. Mr. Dawes did not take an active part in the pre-convention campaign but was regarded as a strong supporter of his friend, Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, Hoover's outstanding opponent.

The itinerary for his trip shows Mr. Hoover will spend both Monday and Tuesday with President Coolidge.

Traveling by way of St. Paul and Minneapolis, the Hoover train will reach Omaha Wednesday morning, departing about 11 a. m.

Send Police To Protect Bremen From Despoilers

Quebec, July 12—(AP)—A detail of Quebec provincial police has been ordered to Greenly Island to protect the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen from souvenir hunters who already have stripped the craft of several of its parts.

Decision to send the police was made as a result of an appeal from Mechanic Thibault of the Transcontinental Airways who has been guarding the plane.

Thibault, one of the first men to reach the plane after Captain Herman Koehl, Major James Fitzmaurice and Baron von Huenefeld landed there last March on completion of their trans-Atlantic flight, told provincial authorities he had had trouble protecting the plane and had been threatened with violence by souvenir hunters.

It is understood Baron von Huenefeld will send a ship after the plane this summer.

Hope To Beat The Round World Mark

Tokyo, July 12—(AP)—John Henry Mears, sailing today on the Empress of Russia with the plane which he and Charles G. D. Collier are using in an attempt to break the around-the-world travel record, said that they hoped to complete their adventure within 23 days. The present record is 28 days, 14 hours and 36 minutes, held by Edward S. Evans and Linton Wells.

Mears said the record they hoped to establish would be beaten only when faster planes are invented.

PARIS TRAFFIC JAMS

BLAME DTO VISITORS

Paris—(AP)—Foreigners and country folk now are being blamed for traffic jams and street accidents.

A third of the cars in Paris streets have been calculated by the police experts to be from abroad or from the provinces, driven usually, it is averred, by people who do not know their way around town or Paris traffic rules.

It is this high percentage of outsiders, says the prefect of police, that creates traffic tangles.

Vagabond Queen

There's vagabondish allure in this exotic pajama suit that knots a frail chiffon kerchief, gypsy fashion, about the hips. Dollar lots of scarlet and pale blue double the chic of the Cell blue chiffon that fashions the pajamas. The trousers swing to comfortable fullness, while the short jumper hugs the figure. It is sleeveless and its V-neck gains femininity and distinction from a soft fold of blue and scarlet chiffon which ties in a bow in the back and lets its ends fall gracefully below the waistline. An artistic mannish coat of Cell blue cape, with huge pockets, completes the ensemble. Scarlet mules accent the suit's dash.

A New Floral Treasure

Adding a new and striking variety to Southern California's floral treasures, a new and beautiful gladiolus has just been developed by Los Angeles horticulturalists and called "Tinted Wings." Miss Alyce Copeland is shown with one of the first specimens of the new blossom.

Is It the Heat, or the Placidity?

"It's too hot to look pleasant very long, so hurry up and take your picture. Anyway, I've got some serious digging to do." That seemed to be what Kenneth Miller, Jr., wanted to say when a photographer for this paper snapped him at Rye Beach, N. Y.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

CHAMPION GENE'S PERSONALITY PRE- DOMINATES CAMP

Fight Atmosphere Completely Engulfed by Tunney

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
Nea Service Writer

Speculator, N. Y.—Penetrating sixty miles from the nearest railroad stop into this garden spot of the Adirondacks, the reporter sent here to get a story about Gene Tunney, the fighter, is at once up against it. As it was on two previous occasions when the young self-constructed aristocrat of the prize fighting business was training for a part in a world's heavyweight championship contest, the personality of Tunney, the man, and not Tunney, the fighter, is the dominating influence of the camp again this year.

Even more than when he was training for his two well remembered fights with Jack Dempsey, the fight atmosphere of the camp is engulfed completely by the personality of the strange champion who is preparing at odd moments for the defense of his title against Tom Heenev in New York on the night of July 26.

For, since what his critics and his haterers refer to as the night of the long count last September, he has done even stranger things for a prize fighter than he did before the public became aware of the other and more dominating side of his personality.

One of the strange acts that has made of him almost an object of curiosity instead of the idol of young roughnecks took him to Yale not long ago to lecture the young college boys on Shakespeare and as a result the curious casuals from the nearby mountain summer resorts come here to see him with a satchel of books and mount a stump for a lecture on something that has nothing to do with the profession he follows.

More than a quarter of a mile from the cottage which he shares at times with the champion novelist of the year, a millionaire department store owner, a rich newspaper publisher and society man and the hardest boiled sport columnist in which seems to be steeped in apology for its presence in such genteel surroundings.

Much farther, though, than that ring where Tunney uses the weapons of his trade are any other betraying signs of his trade. Even thoughts of what he calls a "sordid dirty business" seem to be miles and miles from his interest unless he is backed against the wall by an aggressive interviewer and worked around with great care to a position where he has to speak of it in self-defense—never in pride.

Tunney has many other interests. He will volunteer a mention of the business so close in hand only to tell you that after "it" he will hike through Ireland and Scotland with Thornton Wilder, the Pulitzer prize novelist, and will be tempted back home only by the duty of voting for Al Smith.

He will engage you in a pleasant and far from dumb—discussion about anything that has nothing to do with prize fighting. His subjects are many and varied and they are all rather high-browed. He will even give you a debate that Will Rogers is not creative and that he never has done anything constructive toward the in-

Intellectual advancement of the people.

But, purely as incidentals and sometimes as points to illustrate his contention along another line, he will mention something to do with his business and as a result of one of these slips he let it be known that he positively has no intention to retire after the Heenev fight and that he hasn't the faintest idea that his career could be set behind him by anything that might happen to him in the coming fight.

Hooks and Slides

THEM WERE THE DAYS
The sentiment around the Tunney training camp, prompted perhaps by the attitude of the boss, is that the fight racket isn't for long.

One night recently on Bill Osborne's hotel at Speculator, some of the boxers in the Tunney camp were discussing the future of the business and there seemed to be little optimism.

Billy Wallace, a little lightweight, looking down at an injured hand that has kept him almost idle for a year, expressed the wish that the sore duke would get well quick.

"A year and a half more is all there is going to be to this racket," he said.

And little Charley Rosen, a sparring mate of the champion's reflecting the easy going way of the average boxer said:

"Can't you make it an even dozen, Billy, so I can go to work in those last six months and get myself some dough."

The failure of the most attractive boxing cards to draw any money or make any money this season and their inside knowledge of what is going on behind the scenes has some of the thinking boys in the racket looking around for other occupations.

LOST THE BET, TOO
Bill Gibson, manager of the heavyweight champion, says the most trying moment he ever had came when his Benny Leonard, with his lightweight championship was on the floor for a count of nine in the first round of his fight in New York with Richie Mitchell.

"And the hell of it," Gibson said, "was that Mitchell had no business doing it. Benny, unknown to me had laid $10,000 to $20,000 that Mitchell wouldn't be out for the second round. Benny floored him five times in the first round but couldn't hit him square enough to keep him down. The time was very short when Mitchell started a right hand swing. Benny could have stepped back easily but he figured he didn't have any spare time to make his bet good so he decided to take it and counter with every thing he had. He took the punch alright, but he didn't counter. He almost dropped through the floor."

WHY BE SO SQUANDERISH?
It was raining so hard when Sammy Mandell opened his vaudeville act in Chicago recently that he couldn't get out of the theater to kill time between his four-a-day performance.

He remarked to one of the party with him in the dressing room that he would like to play some bridge and his sparring partner asked him for a buck saying he would go out and get a couple of decks.

"No need to buy any cards," Mandell said. "I have a deck in the hotel room and we can wait until tomorrow to play."

TUNNEY IS NEAR CONDITION PEAK FOR TITLE BOUT

Champion Drinks Lots of Milk to Keep Up Weight

Speculator, N. Y., July 12—(AP)—Generous doses of milk have kept Gene Tunney from training down too fine for the defense of his title against Tom Heenev at the Yankee stadium July 26, although the champion still has two weeks of work, he is now just short of the peak of condition. He weighs 197 pounds, and after a hard workout he is five pounds lighter, the exact weight he intends to carry when he faces Heenev.

Tunney restores the five pounds he loses in the ring every day by drinking three pints of milk after each session.

Spectators are charged fifty cents to watch the champion cuff his sparring partners, Harold Mays and Billy Viadbeck, the proceeds go to the little St. James Catholic church here.

Tunney gets plenty of sleep and relaxation and conserves the resulting nervous energy by avoiding all worry and eating but two meals daily to aid his digestion. Thus he can expend his energy in the necessary physical effort.

THREE ATHLETES STOWAWAY ON OLYMPIC VESSEL

Friends Bail Hussey Ex-Champion Sprinter, Out Of Brig

Aboard S. S. President Roosevelt, July 12.—(AP)—Three stowaways, including Frank Hussey, former national sprint champion, were discovered today on this vessel which is conveying the United States Olympic team to the games at Amsterdam. The others were Hugo Leistner, San Francisco hurdler, and Clyde Blanchard of the University of Arizona, another hurdler, who also was shut out in the trials for places on the team.

All three were confined in the brig overnight. Hussey was the first released when friends including the runners, Joe Tierney and Bob McAllister, raised $130 to defray the expense of the passage. The Olympic Work outs for the athletes were organized today, a special canvass tank being filled for the swimmers and the rowing machines installed.

Olympic Slants

BY ALAN J. GOULD

Steamship President Roosevelt Enroute to Amsterdam.—(AP)—Apparently the last word on the Paddock case so far as the Olympic committee is concerned has been pronounced by Major General Douglas MacArthur, president of the committee, in reply to a statement issued by General Palmer E. Pierce, president of the National Collegiate, upholding the attack on the famous sprinter's amateur status.

After a unanimous committee vote sustaining Paddock's amateur standing, MacArthur radioed the following reply to General Pierce:

"Your telegram apparently based on complete misunderstanding of your part of my position and action. I suggest you obtain from the press the only statement which was given out in reference to the resignation of George W. Wightman of Boston from the Olympic committee. As you will see, none of the issues which were discussed in your wire were involved."

"As far as Paddock is concerned or any other athlete pertaining to the Olympic team, the committee would not hesitate to act had any evidence been submitted prejudicial to him. The selection committee recommended to me that Paddock be declared ineligible and that his status was doubtful and should be investigated before he was selected."

"This was done at my request by the Sports Association which primarily accredits him. I am informed that not only was no evidence submitted which in any way prejudiced his standing but sworn statements made not only by himself but by all others connected with the alleged commercialism were in complete denial of such allegations. In his case, I personally not only invited but sought evidence but absolutely nothing was forthcoming.

"Certainly those who make the charges against him should be willing and able to proclaim him a pro with something more to substantiate their accusation than whispered innuendo, heresy and comment."

Plow Makers Tackle Deer Grove Sunday

The J. I. Case Co. baseball team, which won a fine 1 to 0 game from the Merchants team of the Industrial League Wednesday evening, seeks other worlds to conquer Sunday afternoon, when they will tackle the fast Deer Grove team at the diamond at Eighth street and Van Buren avenue. Fans anticipate a real contest.

IZZY GETS BUSY

New York, July 13—Superstitious is evidently one thing that Izzy Schwartz is not.

The New York mite, who is recognized as world's flyweight champion in this state, puts his crown at stake in a 12 round battle against Frisco Grande, hard-hitting Buffalo Filipino, at the Rockaway Stadium tonight, weather permitting.

Schwartz apparently cares little for the fact that it's Friday the 13th. The boys who do the betting evidently don't think much of it either for Izzy has been installed a 2 to 1 favorite.

Watching the Big Scoreboard

BY HERBERT W. BARKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
There's mathematical proof that the New York Yankees have yet to clinch the American League pennant. But alleged contenders in that circuit are coming day by day to the realization that it will take a miracle to head off Babe Ruth & Company from their third successive appearance in the world's series.

For a month the champions have done little better than break even yet they lead the procession by ten and a half games. Their closest competitors, the Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Browns have done no better over the same period.

The three leaders have fared since June 10 as follows:

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|-----------|----|----|------|
| Yankees | 19 | 15 | .559 |
| Athletics | 20 | 16 | .556 |
| Browns | 18 | 16 | .529 |

The Athletics lost a chance yesterday to cut deeply into the leaders' lead when they split even with the Chicago White Sox while Detroit was nailing out the Yanks at New York.

Redfern's single scored Cissel, who had doubled, with the run that gave the White Sox a 4 to 3 decision over the A's in the first game. Eddie Rommel was in good form in the nightcap and gave the Athletics an even break on the day, 5 to 2.

The Browns bunched hits off MacFayden in the sixth inning to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 1. Alvin Corwider chalking up victory No. 10 against one defeat.

Burns' single in the tenth sent the Washington Senators down to a 2 to 1 defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Indians in a tight pitchers' battle between George Uhle of the Indians, and Garland Braxton and Fred Marberry.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals increased their lead to five and a half games by trimming the New York Giants, 11 to 1, in a five and one-half inning engagement halted by rain.

Dolf Luque and Ray Moss hooked up in a beautiful pitchers' battle at Cincinnati, rain ending hostilities in the last of the ninth with the score tied at precisely nothing for the Reds and the same amount for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Charlie Root shook a seven game losing streak when he pitched the Chicago Cubs to their third straight win over the Boston Braves, 4 to 1.

I. N. U. TEAM WON

The Utilities Company won a hard game from the Brown Shoe Company at the South Side diamond last night, defeating them 3 to 1.

The fielding of both teams was fast. The I. N. U. made a fast double play in the third inning and the Browns also made a beautiful double play in the fourth.

Hargraves, Prestegard and Nelson brought in the runs for the I. N. U. and Ryan for the Browns.

Downs and Beach of the Browns made the only two-base hits in the game. Large, of the Browns, allowed the I. N. U. only four hits, while Redish gave his opponents only five.

SUPERIOR GETS ANOTHER VIEW OF COOLIDGES

President Makes Unannounced Visit to His Executive Office

Superior, Wis., July 12—(AP)—President and Mrs. Coolidge paid an unexpected visit to Superior today. Acustomed to seeing Mr. Coolidge come to town only on Tuesday and Fridays, the city was not on the lookout for him and he slipped to the executives offices hardly noticed.

Mrs. Coolidge had never accompanied the chief executive before. She alighted from the automobile at the offices and sat with Mr. Coolidge while he went through his correspondence and signed some papers. John Coolidge remained at Cedar Island Lodge.

Word of their presence in Superior soon spread, however, and a large crowd awaited Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge half an hour later when they came out of the office to return to the Lodge. Mrs. Coolidge, wearing a bright red coat and white skirt, responded vivaciously to three cheers of the bystanders.

Plans are in the meantime being matured in Superior for a demonstration in Secretary Hoover's honor upon his arrival here next Monday.

Duluth also plans to stage a demonstration, counting on a visit by Secretary Hoover before his final departure from the head of the lakes region for California. Duluth hopes that the Republican nominee will board his train there thus allowing an opportunity for a parade.

ARREST CHICAGO FLIRTS

Chicago, July 12—(AP)—Flirting with the lassies in the Woodlawn police district nowadays is flirting with the police themselves. They nabbed 17 young men last night, locked them in cells, and announced that the crusade had only just started.

"I have received many complaints from mothers who said their daughters were being annoyed by these automobile flirts," said Capt. O'Connell, of the Woodlawn station. "Therefore I decided to start a new war on these pests."

Last year police in the same district arrested 225 on flirting charges in a week's time.

BROADWAY GETS THRILL

New York, July 12—(AP)—Broadway crowds were thrown into a turmoil today when five explosions in the kitchen on the Strand roof shook the theatrical district, from 45th to 49th streets. More than one hundred employees of theatrical agencies located in the four-story building and a score of job hunting actresses and actors fled to the street after the first explosion.

The explosions were caused by a leak in the gas stove in the kitchen of the dining and dancing resort which had been closed for two months.

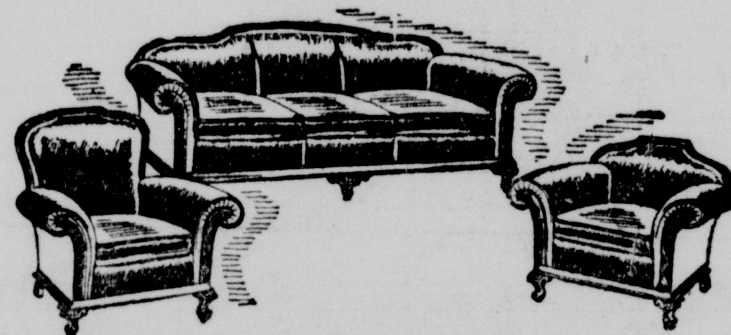

TRAINMEN KILLED

Montreal, July 12—(AP)—The engineer, fireman and conductor of a Canadian Pacific freight train were killed today near Glacier, B. C., when the boiler of the engine exploded, due to a water shortage, headquarters of the railroad announced.
